

Hankelow

There is a history section of the Hankelow website which has more information and photographs.

There is one of the old chapel on the main road and one of the school pupils c. 1937 and several accounts of childhood and family links. Rather than duplicate this work we suggest you pay the site a visit.